

Christians for an Ethical Society

Affiliated with the NSW Ecumenical Council

2010 Series Forum

Poverty & Plenty ...

Where ~~do~~ should Christians stand?

Speakers:

Father Frank Brennan AO SJ
Professor of Law at the Australian Catholic University

Frank Brennan was Director of the Uniya Jesuit Social Justice Centre in Sydney, received the Order of Australia for services to Aboriginal Australians, and was awarded the Humanitarian Overseas Service Medal for his 18 months in East Timor as Director of the Jesuit Refugee Service. In 2009 led Australian consultations about the protection and promotion of human rights.

Reverend Dr Erica Mathieson
Rector, Holy Cross, Hackett

Erica Mathieson, Rector of Holy Cross Anglican Church, Hackett, is a visiting lecturer in pastoral studies at St Mark's Theological College, and has engaged in research at Macquarie University in the fields of papyrology, early Christianity and women in antiquity.

Chair: Rev Gregor Henderson

Wednesday 17 March 7.30 pm

at Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture
cnr Kings Ave & Blackall St, Barton

The forum will seek to encourage discussion from the floor - $5 Donation requested to cover hall costs
Christians for an Ethical Society is an autonomous ecumenical Christian organisation that has evolved from the Centre for an Ethical Society.

Contact Information: Heather McLaren 02 6291 4537
www.ces.org.au